

Parent Involvement

Wisconsin Education Innovations offers customized workshops and services designed to increase family involvement. Our sessions help parents to promote a child's academic, social, and physical well-being while building a strong home to school connection.

Sample of Workshop Offerings: These sessions may be eligible for Title funding!

- Parenting with Love & Logic
- How to Help with Homework
- Family Math Night
- Family Reading Night
- Nutrition: Eating Healthy
- Introduction to Computers
- Internet Safety
- Child or Adolescent Development
- Teasing & Bullying
- Self-Esteem
- Study Skills
- Tips & Tricks to Improve Writing
- Engineering is Elementary (EiE)
- Legos & Lego Robotics
- Tips & Tricks to Memorize Math Facts
- Make & Take Activities to Increase Literacy
- Helping Your Child with Reading
- Helping Your Child with Math
- Family Finances
- Behavioral Management
- Teen Relationships
- Motivating Your Child
- School-Home Communication

Let us help you create a one-year action plan for increased school, family, and community partnerships based on Joyce Epstein's Six Types of Involvement!

Contact:

Cheryl Foster
Parent Involvement Coordinator
Wisconsin Education Innovations

cheryl@inov8ed.com
262.439.9028

We can customize a workshop or series to meet the needs of your school and families!

www.inov8ed.com

Turn Your Parent Session into a FAMILY FUN NIGHT!

Catering available to provide dinner for participating families.

Interactive and educational activities available for children and teens while parents are in session.

Workshops available in English and/or Spanish!